SON ADMITS CRIME FOR WHICH FATHER WENT TO SCAFFOLD

Young Canadian Farmer Who Killed Mother Was Witness Against His Father

EVANGELIST HAS CONFESSION

Father Hanged Seven Years Ago For Murder Of Which He Had No Knowledge

Associated Press. TORONTO, July 24.—As the result of the confessed murder of his mother, a crime for which his father was hanged seven years ago, Arnell Love, young farmer, lies in jail today. During an evangelist meeting at Cayton, Ontario, Love went forward and declared to the evangelist he had clubbed his mother to death because she reproached him for keeping bad company. Love was one of the principal witnesses against his father. While evidence against the elder Love was mostly circumstantial, the father on the scaffold made what was believed to have been a confession of his guilt. The son grew to manhood, becoming a prosperous farmer, and the tragedy of his life was apparently buried until he attended the evangelist service. He told the evangelist that when his mother reproached him he was angered and killed her with a stick of wood and hid the body in the cellar. On the advice of the evangelist Love gave himself up to the police, who are investigating his story.

RICH ORE FOUND IN SILVER HILLS

Forty tons of $40 ore is now being milled daily at the Silver Hills, formerly the Ingalls, in Tule canyon, according to W. B. Mercer, one of the owners of the mine, on which the Silver Hills has an option. There is exposed on the 100-foot level an eight-foot width of 100-ounce silver ore, according to Mr. Mercer.

The contract for sinking the shaft 100 feet from the 135-foot point has been completed and the driving of a short crosscut to the vein at this depth the work that will finally decide whether the sale will be closed—can now be started. Sheriff Ingalls and Mercer have such faith that they have extended from August to December the time for making the second payment on the purchase price of $125,000.

Three stamps that crush 50 tons daily have been added to the lighter stamps in the old mill, and good results are being secured, the concentrate assaying about 1000 ounces.

The ore is being shipped from above the 50- and 100-foot levels. The shaft left the vein at a place where there was a three-foot width of 120-ounce ore, and that the rich deposit on the 50- and 100-foot levels will not be opened in the crosscut to be driven on the 200-foot level is regarded as highly improbable.

The present shaft is single-compartment, but if ore is found on the new level to be opened it is planned to sink a double-compartment vertical shaft and secure electric power from the Nevada-California power company line at Palmetto-Goldfield-Tribune.

CURRENT CREEK WATER DISPUTE TO BE SETTLED

Adjudication Of Rights Prepared By State Engineer; Submit To Court Here

Adjudication of water rights along Current creek, in Nye county, has been prepared by the state engineer and will be submitted to Judge Averill for approval at Tonopah, August 12. It is anticipated that the hearing before the judge will be of unusual interest because of certain phases of the Nevada water law which will at that time be presented for confirmation. It is understood that the adjudication worked out is really an amicable settlement of long standing differences of water users along the stream.

OLD NEWSPAPER

In considering the Current creek case, State Engineer Scruggs found a copy of the Territorial Enterprise of date of September 9, 1875, of interest. The entire news space of the front page of that issue, consisting of more than four columns, was filled with Chief Justice Hawley's supreme court decision in the case of Richard Barnes, appellant, vs. Joseph Sabron et al., defendants. The decision reversed a lower court judgment in favor of the defendants and ordered the case remanded for a new trial. The action had been brought for the recovery of damages for the alleged unlawful diversion of Current Creek waters during specified months of the year 1873.

DIG UP PAPER

Mr. Scruggs stated that while he was on one of his trips to the Current creek district to get first-hand information and data for use in the adjudication, he interviewed an elderly lady, long a resident in that section. Suddenly one of the lady's dead and dumb sons, who was present, made signs to his mother. "He says that we have somewhere in the house an old paper that tells all about the Current creek water case," the lady told Mr. Scruggs. A search was made at the time, but without success. Soon after his return to the office the old copy of the Enterprise was received by the engineer with a note explaining that it was the paper referred to by the son. It was evident that the young man, who had been educated and taught to read, at the time of Mr. Scruggs's visit instantly remembered having read the paper long forgotten by the other members of the family, when told the reason for the call.

OF GREAT INTEREST

The prominence of position given the decision in the columns of the Enterprise indicates that the water case must have been of great interest to the residents of Nevada at that early date, especially when it is considered that Virginia City was the world's great mining center and not in an agricultural community.

ALONG HUMBOLDT

Members of the organizations that have charge of the co-operative "provisional" adjudication of water rights along the Humboldt river system on lines recently outlined now feel absolutely certain of the success of the undertaking. Within the last two or three days practically all large users of water and owners of land affected in the Battle Mountain district have promised to lend the movement their approval and contribute their pro rata share of the expense necessary, and this is said to be the "climacter" that will put an end to long-drawn-out litigation over Humboldt river water rights.

WANT ALASKAN DOGS FOR NORTHERN TRIP

Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Alaska dogs are wanted by a party of British explorers who are planning an expedition to the Antarctic, according to a letter received by C. E. Darling, of Berkeley, Cal., former Nome, Alaska, dog raiser, from Captain G. H. Williams, a member of the proposed expedition.

John L. Cope, surgeon and biologist of the Sir Ernest Shackleton expedition to the South Pole, is to lead the party, the letter said. It was added, will be made from Wellington, New Zealand, next fall.

Dogs of the breed wanted by the British expedition are from the same stock as the animals sent to France from Alaska during the war by Darling and A. A. Allan, another Nome dog raiser. The two men developed a team that won the annual Nome, Alaska, two-sledges dog derby four times.

INDIANS ARRIVE TO MEET ELKS

Both Teams on Edge For Big Game Here Tomorrow Afternoon; Lineup

The Smoky Valley Indian baseball team arrived in Tonopah this morning for the big game to be played with the local Elks club tomorrow afternoon. The Indians, who have a long line of victories to their credit, are confident of defeating the local players; in fact, it is reported they have come prepared to back up their lunch along this line. The daily practices of the Elks the past week, however, have shown the local aggregation to be in the best of condition, and there are those in Tonopah who will back the local team against any club in the state.

The game tomorrow will be called at 3:30. Admission will be 50 cents. The probable lineup of the Elks (left to right):

McMillen, Catcher
Prout, Murphy, O'Sell, Pitchers
Cain—First base
Herd—Second base
McMadden—Third base
Johns—Shortstop
Hunt, Murphy, Right field
Ryan, Harvey—Center field

There is every indication that there will be a large attendance at the game. The Elks are making an attempt to revive interest in baseball in Tonopah and are deserving of the support of the local followers of the game.

Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The Russian steamer Rogday, which was seized in San Francisco harbor today by representatives of one of the Russian factions seeking possession of the craft, was captured later by the revenue cutter Golden Gate at the entrance to Suisun bay after a 10-mile chase. The vessel had been for some time in the hands of Captain Corbrey, who refused to surrender it to M. Romanovsky, local representative of the Kerensky regime, and former ambassador at Washington. The Rogday has been in the harbor several months. A watchman was shot and wounded when possession was taken by the rival faction today.

CREDIT LOST BY NEW REICHSTAG

Associated Press. BERLIN, July 24.—All hopes of American credits must definitely be abandoned as a result of the outcome of the Reichstag elections and the fate of Germany consequently will be completely in the hands of the emperor, according to Baron von Riechthofen, defeated democratic candidate, who outlines his views in a long article in the Boersen Zeitung.

Americans were not unfavorably disposed toward Germany's political and economic future. Baron Riechthofen continues, but the defeat of the democratic program as the elections demonstrated many fond hopes based on that fact.

"We must expect Americans will demand priority for any of their credits over the allies' indemnity claims, which means the final decision will be with the entente," he believes.

NEW MEXICO DESIRES TO CHANGE ITS NAME

Associated Press. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 24.—New Mexico residents have started another move to change the name of the state, in order they say, to convince easterners that New Mexico is one of the United States and not a part of the republic south of the line. Promoters of the scheme hope to carry it to the state legislature.

Many easterners evidently do not know where New Mexico is on the map. Often when there is trouble in Mexico, miles below the border, New Mexico residents receive telegrams and letters from eastern relatives and friends asking if there is danger. Postoffice officials say letters sometimes arrive from the east bearing foreign stamps and marked "By Way of the Panama Canal."

"Native-born citizens may oppose the move to change the name as they fear the step would destroy the state's rich history."

HOLD LAST CUP EVENT MONDAY

Deciding Contest of Shamrock and Resolute Postponed By Committee

Associated Press. SANDY HOOK, July 24.—The fifth international cup race, upon which hangs the fate of the trophy today was declared off by the yacht committee. The reason given was heavy weather. As the yacht started back to shelter in the Hook the regatta committee decided that the best race would be held Monday.

The first hint that the race had been postponed came when the yachts were three miles northwest of Ambrose Lightship and heading in the direction of Sandy Hook. With an E. S. breeze blowing, observers ashore inferred the skippers did not care to take the chance of being dismantled or wrecked in heavy seas or squalls blows.
